

WellCare Acquisition

As you are likely aware, Centene, the parent company of Home State Health recently acquired WellCare, the parent company of Missouri Care. In most markets we are joining our businesses together. In Missouri, however, Missouri Care's Medicaid product was sold to Anthem.

For Home State Health providers, nothing is changing. You should continue to treat members from Home State Health as you do under your current contract. Your existing provider support channels will remain in place. And your patients' current Member ID cards will remain valid as well. We will communicate any relevant changes in health plan operations to you well in advance.

If you also participate with Missouri Care, as of January 23, 2020, Anthem is the owner of that product and you should communicate with Anthem regarding their administration of the business.

Sincerely,

Home State Health
